PROVIDING SUPPORT & INSPIRING ACTION

We are proud to lead a non-profit organization that continues to give back to the community. With the support of volunteers, staff and donors, the Marshalltown YMCA-YWCA provides financial assistance, facility space and leadership in community initiatives.

The Y works to ensure availability of high-quality child care and preschool for all families; increase opportunities for youth and impact them in a positive way through child care, sports, day camp and arts programs; increase opportunities for families to build stronger bonds; expand programs that lead to healthier lifestyles; and encourage partnerships that strengthen our communities.

One of the Y’s young scholarship recipients summed up the impact of our work very nicely in a thank-you note by saying, “Thank you for allowing me to be a part of the Y family. And, I will be safe.”

Thank you for your support of the Y and our community in 2019!

Sincerely,

Carol Hibbs, CEO       Ronnie Manis, CVO

The mission of the YMCA is to put Christian principles into practice through programs that build healthy spirit, mind and body for all.

YWCA is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all.
Gabi Zavala and her husband started working out at the Y when he was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes. The Y was a good fit for them because the Child Care provided a fun, safe space for their four-year-old son to be while they were exercising.

Since joining, the Y has touched the lives of the members of her family in different and meaningful ways. Her kids have participated in soccer, t-ball, swimming and other activities. One of her daughters volunteered for the Y and was then hired as a staff person.

Gabi said, “I appreciate the support and kindness of the Y as my husband and I work to improve our personal health and that of our family.”

John Dresser has been a Y member for more than 55 years. He joined his first Y in New Mexico, then later moved to Marshalltown to work at Fisher Controls.

For his 37 years working as an engineer at Fisher, John had as many years of unwinding at the Y after work. John has seen firsthand the impact of the Y on people of different ages and demographics. Now that he is retired, he appreciates the sense of community at the Y and continues to exercise regularly.

John stated that the Y supports people in both of these stages of life while helping them adapt to the changes that come with approaching the next stage of life, whether it be kindergarten or retirement. He noted, “some grow up while some grow old.”

Kimi Kups-Benson is celebrating 30 years of dance at the Y this year! Miss Kimi began dancing at age 3 and teaching her first classes by age 14. “I was just teaching a few nights a week, part-time at the Y. I was a one-woman show back then, with maybe one student teacher.” Thirty years later The Dance Konnection is strong with 345 dancers, a staff of 20 teachers and student teachers and nearly 60 classes held each week. Miss Kimi strives to offer a safe space dancers can come and feel uninhibited and receive moral support.

In addition to teaching dance classes, Miss Kimi helps local community theater groups and high schools with choreography for theatrical productions. She has served as a judge for many local and statewide talent shows and national dance competitions. She is a certified member of the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Arts (NADAA) and Acrobatic Arts.

Miss Kimi took home the Outstanding Director of the Year award in 2019 from the Bravo National Dance Competition.

Y CEO Carol Hibbs was honored with two major awards in 2019. First, she received the Legacy Award at the YMCA State Leadership Conference. This award was given in recognition for Carol’s leadership within her Y, across the state and throughout the country.

In December, she was also presented the Kenneth Brintnall Award by the Rotary Club of Marshalltown. This is the club’s highest honor which recognizes “service above self.”
